Title XLVI. Crimes (Chapters 775-899)
Chapter 827. Abuse of Children (Refs & Annos)

West's F.S.A. § 827.071

827.071. Sexual performance by a child; penalties

Effective: October 1, 2012
Currentness

(1) As used in this section, the following definitions shall apply:

- (a) "Deviate sexual intercourse" means sexual conduct between persons not married to each other consisting of contact between the penis and the anus, the mouth and the penis, or the mouth and the vulva.
- (b) "Intentionally view" means to deliberately, purposefully, and voluntarily view. Proof of intentional viewing requires establishing more than a single image, motion picture, exhibition, show, image, data, computer depiction, representation, or other presentation over any period of time.
- (c) "Performance" means any play, motion picture, photograph, or dance or any other visual representation exhibited before an audience.
- (d) "Promote" means to procure, manufacture, issue, sell, give, provide, lend, mail, deliver, transfer, transmute, publish, distribute, circulate, disseminate, present, exhibit, or advertise or to offer or agree to do the same.
- (e) "Sadomasochistic abuse" means flagellation or torture by or upon a person, or the condition of being fettered, bound, or otherwise physically restrained, for the purpose of deriving sexual satisfaction from inflicting harm on another or receiving such harm oneself.
- (f) "Sexual battery" means oral, anal, or vaginal penetration by, or union with, the sexual organ of another or the anal or vaginal penetration of another by any other object; however, "sexual battery" does not include an act done for a bona fide medical purpose.
- (g) "Sexual bestiality" means any sexual act between a person and an animal involving the sex organ of the one and the mouth, anus, or vagina of the other.

(h) "Sexual conduct" means actual or simulated sexual intercourse, deviate sexual intercourse, sexual bestiality, masturbation, or sadomasochistic abuse; actual lewd exhibition of the genitals; actual physical contact with a person's clothed or unclothed genitals, pubic area, buttocks, or, if such person is a female, breast, with the intent to arouse or gratify the sexual desire of either party; or any act or conduct which constitutes sexual battery or simulates that sexual battery is being or will be committed. A mother's breastfeeding of her baby does not under any circumstance constitute "sexual conduct."

(i) "Sexual performance" means any performance or part thereof which includes sexual conduct by a child of less than 18 years of age.

(j) "Simulated" means the explicit depiction of conduct set forth in paragraph (h) which creates the appearance of such conduct and which exhibits any uncovered portion of the breasts, genitals, or buttocks.

(2) A person is guilty of the use of a child in a sexual performance if, knowing the character and content thereof, he or she employs, authorizes, or induces a child less than 18 years of age to engage in a sexual performance or, being a parent, legal guardian, or custodian of such child, consents to the participation by such child in a sexual performance. Whoever violates this subsection is guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(3) A person is guilty of promoting a sexual performance by a child when, knowing the character and content thereof, he or she produces, directs, or promotes any performance which includes sexual conduct by a child less than 18 years of age. Whoever violates this subsection is guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(4) It is unlawful for any person to possess with the intent to promote any photograph, motion picture, exhibition, show, representation, or other presentation which, in whole or in part, includes any sexual conduct by a child. The possession of three or more copies of such photograph, motion picture, representation, or presentation is prima facie evidence of an intent to promote. Whoever violates this subsection is guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(5)(a) It is unlawful for any person to knowingly possess, control, or intentionally view a photograph, motion picture, exhibition, show, representation, image, data, computer depiction, or other presentation which, in whole or in part, he or she knows to include any sexual conduct by a child. The possession, control, or intentional viewing of each such photograph, motion picture, exhibition, show, image, data, computer depiction, representation, or presentation is a separate offense. If such photograph, motion picture, exhibition, show, representation, image, data, computer depiction, or other presentation includes sexual conduct by more than one child, then each such child in each such photograph, motion picture, exhibition, show, representation, image, data, computer depiction, or other presentation that is knowingly possessed, controlled, or intentionally viewed is a separate offense. A person who violates this subsection commits a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(b) This subsection does not apply to material possessed, controlled, or intentionally viewed as part of a law enforcement investigation.

(6) Prosecution of any person for an offense under this section shall not prohibit prosecution of that person in this state for a violation of any law of this state, including a law providing for greater penalties than prescribed in this section or any other crime punishing the sexual performance or the sexual exploitation of children.

On May 30, 2017 at approximately 10:57 PM I responded to [REDACTED] to assist Officer [REDACTED] with an investigation. Upon arrival we made contact with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] in their front yard. [REDACTED] was carrying a white in color Samsung tablet and advised us he had located an app on his step-daughter's tablet called "Say Hi". Mr. [REDACTED] stated he was checking step-daughter, [REDACTED] tablet because a notification from Say Hi popped up on the screen. He then realized it was an older guy talking to [REDACTED] who is 9 years old. Upon opening the message conversation, [REDACTED] observed where the guy, "Scott" had been sending [REDACTED] nude photos of himself and who he advised were his young daughter's. One of the young girls in a picture was touching her vaginal area under her shorts; I observed a link at the bottom of the picture for frankporn.com. There were graphic images of young girls he sent to [REDACTED] and there was also a 37 second long video of a grown man's penis rubbing against a young girls vaginal area. The other pictures of the young girls he sent to [REDACTED] did not have links for porn sites. "Scott" told [REDACTED] that was him and his young daughter. Scott also made statements that he knew [REDACTED] was young and asked her to send him pictures of her. There are pictures of [REDACTED] pulling her shirt up so you can see her chest and pulling her pants down so you can see her vaginal area which were sent to "Scott". When [REDACTED] found these messages, he began to message "Scott" at 10:15 PM acting like [REDACTED]. He asked Scott to send pictures of himself and tried to obtain more information on Scott like where he lives. Scott did send a picture of a white male with glasses who he alleges is him. In the background there is a bed with black and red bed sheets which match the sheets in pictures he sent before of his penis.

[REDACTED] recognized one of the young girls who Scott states is his daughter. [REDACTED] stated she knew the girl from [REDACTED] School. While I was speaking with [REDACTED] mom, [REDACTED] she stated [REDACTED] went to [REDACTED] School for 2 months while she was in first grade in October and November of either 2014 or 2015. [REDACTED] stated [REDACTED] could not remember the girl's name. I asked [REDACTED] if she had access to a yearbook from that year so we could get the young girl identified and she stated she did not but her friend, [REDACTED] has kids that age and should have a yearbook. [REDACTED] contact number is [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] is also going to try to get in contact with her to get a yearbook. Shortly after arriving on scene I asked [REDACTED] to sit in my patrol vehicle to provide a written statement while Officer [REDACTED] obtained a written statement from [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] provided the following written statement: "On May 30, 2017 at 10 PM I was at work at [REDACTED] and was about to clock out. [REDACTED] my fiancé, messaged me on Facebook and told me that he found a conversation between a guy named Scott and my daughter [REDACTED] and he's found nude pictures and videos. [REDACTED] also said he saw a video sent to [REDACTED] from the Scott guy of Scott having sex with his daughter. I called [REDACTED] on the phone and he told me he was shaking and angry and had just found the messages on [REDACTED] tablet. I told him I need to see this for myself and I drove straight home. It took me about thirty minutes to get home and as soon as I walked in the door I took the tablet from him and read everything and saw the pictures. I talked to my daughter and told her she didn't do anything wrong and I'm not mad at her. I asked her if she knew who this guy was and if she knew the little girl. She said "yes I know the little girl, she went to school with me in [REDACTED] I can't remember her name but I know they moved to Florida." My daughter goes to [REDACTED] now and is in 2nd grade but she went to [REDACTED] two years ago for a couple of months during Kindergarten. I believe it was October and November of 2014 when she was at [REDACTED] I asked her how she heard about the app and she said somebody from school or daycare told her about it and she has had the app for about two weeks now that we know of. She also has a picture of a girl from her daycare that she took on her tablet and she sent that to "Scott". [REDACTED] also showed me where she sent a picture of me to some other guy and said it was her. I did not know she even had this app "Say Hi" on her tablet and I have never heard of it. I did not give her permission to download the app or use my pictures for the app. My friend, [REDACTED] has kids my daughters age who go to [REDACTED] I should be able to get a yearbook from her to try and find the young girl my daughter recognizes in pictures sent from "Scott". [REDACTED] contact number is [REDACTED] I've never known my daughter to communicate with people like that online before. I give permission to the police department to search the tablet for further evidence for the investigation. "

[REDACTED] then signed a consent to search form for the tablet and turned the tablet over to me. The consent to search form, statements, and tablet will be logged into evidence. While in my vehicle I looked through the messages on the Say Hi app and found several other conversations with men that [REDACTED] had on her phone. Including "Scott" there were five men messaging [REDACTED] who at some point admitted to knowing she was young/underage and still requesting photos of her or sending her nude photos of themselves. There was a guy named "[REDACTED]" and "[REDACTED]" [REDACTED] also provides the number [REDACTED] for [REDACTED] to contact him on an app called "Whatsapp". I did not see Whatsapp on [REDACTED] tablet. The "[REDACTED]" subject made statements that he wanted to talk to someone underage and talked to her for a while until she told him that she was 18. When she told [REDACTED] she was 18 he stated she was too old and stopped talking to her.

[REDACTED] also has other messaging apps on her tablet and access to internet which I did not go through. While [REDACTED] was in my vehicle she asked to check the photo gallery on [REDACTED] tablet and we observed the naked photos of herself she sent to "Scott" along with photos of "Scott's daughters" he sent her saved to her gallery. She also had nude photos of other men saved to her gallery that were sent to her through the Say Hi app. I advised [REDACTED] that the assigned detective would most likely set up an appointment for Dragonfly House for [REDACTED] I advised [REDACTED] she may be contacted within the next few days or week in reference to same or follow up investigation. Identification and Arrest of Scott
TRADER

SYNOPSIS

On May 31, 2017, Special Agents assigned to the Homeland Security Investigations Office of the Resident Agent in Charge, Fort Pierce, FL (HSI Fort Pierce), received information from HSI Winston-Salem, North Carolina, regarding an individual residing in Port Saint Lucie, FL, within the HSI Fort Pierce area of responsibility (AOR), who'd engaged in explicit chat and sent child pornography to a minor victim in North Carolina. HSI Fort Pierce identified Scott Joseph TRADER, a US Citizen whose date of birth is June 13, 1985, as a suspect in this case.

Initial information regarding the investigation was received from HSI Winston-Salem. HSI Ft. Pierce identified TRADER as a suspect and obtained a search warrant for TRADER's residence. HSI Ft. Pierce executed the search warrant, resulting in the discovery of child pornography produced by TRADER, who was then arrested.

DETAILS OF INVESTIGATION

On 31 May 2017, SA [REDACTED] HSI Ft. Pierce, was contacted by SA [REDACTED] [REDACTED] HSI Winston-Salem, regarding a child exploitation investigation. SA [REDACTED] provided the following information:

On 30 May 2017, the Thomasville Police Department, North Carolina, received a complaint from the stepfather of a 9-year-old victim. The complainant reported his discovery of explicit chat communications between the victim and her chat partner "Scott" on the SayHi Smartphone Application. The complainant provided the victim's mobile device to police for examination. The Thomasville Police Department requested the assistance of HSI Winston-Salem in furthering the investigation.

SA [REDACTED] conducted a forensic examination of the victim's device, revealing SayHi text communications with "Scott" on the evening of 30 May 2017. The victim provided Scott pictures which clearly indicated she was a preteen female. Scott requested nude images from the victim and transmitted a child pornography video to the victim. The video was a 37 second long depiction of an adult male rubbing his penis on the vagina of a preteen female. Scott claimed the female depicted in the video was his daughter. Scott also sent a masturbation video to the victim, along with a still image which depicted Scott's face. SA [REDACTED] reviewed Scott's SayHi profile, which had a picture of his face, along with an apparent minor female. The face depicted in the still image transmitted to the victim matched the Scott SayHi profile image. Scott's profile also listed his Kik username, "Daddyhasafunnyface."

SayHi is based in China. In an effort to obtain emergency disclosure information, SA [REDACTED] emailed a request to SayHi Support, requesting a representative contact him as soon as possible.

SA [REDACTED] sent an emergency disclosure request to Kik, a smartphone communications application, for username Daddyhasafunnyface. Kik responded, indicating the email account associated with the account was strader0227@yahoo.com. Kik also provided a login history, indicating there were logons to the account from IP address 76.110.46.234 starting 1 May 2017, through 31 May 2017, at 06:36 UTC. The IP address is registered to Comcast. The Kik profile picture matched the aforementioned "Scott" SayHi profile picture, and the still image transmitted during the SayHi chat.

SA [REDACTED] sent an emergency disclosure request to Comcast for the subscriber information associated with IP address 76.110.46.234 on 31 May 2017, at 06:36 UTC. Comcast responded, identifying the subscriber as [REDACTED] [REDACTED] 1189 SW Edinburgh Drive, Port St. Lucie, Florida, 34953.

On 31 May 2017, SA [REDACTED] conducted a property records search for 1189 SW Edinburg Drive, Port St. Lucie, Florida, on the St. Lucie County Property Appraiser's website. According to the website, 1189 SW Edinburg Drive, Port St. Lucie, Florida was purchased by [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] on 16 June 2016.

SA [REDACTED] conducted a check of Florida Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicle (DHSMV) records, which indicated that on 1 August 2016, Scott TRADER, born 13 June 1985, listed his mailing address as 1189 SW Edinburg Drive, Port St. Lucie, Florida, 34953. TRADER's Driver License photograph matched the SayHi profile, Kik profile, and transmitted images. TRADER did not update his residential address, 4286 SW Carl Street, Port St. Lucie, Florida, which was also [REDACTED]'s, address until the purchase of the 1189 SW Edinburg Drive property.

SA [REDACTED] conducted a criminal history record check which revealed that in 2012, Scott TRADER was arrested by the Port St. Lucie Police Department for Promoting a Sexual Performance by a Child, Lewd Behavior, and Possession of Child Pornography. Those charges were dropped/abandoned, and TRADER was instead convicted for Felony Child Neglect. In December 2016, TRADER was arrested for Lewd Behavior - Molesting a Victim less than 12 years of age.

On 31 May 2017, TFO [REDACTED] established surveillance of 1189 SW Edinburg Drive. At approximately 8:25 PM, TFO [REDACTED] observed an adult female and a female child, approximately two years of age, entering the residence.

On 31 May 2017, at 11:51 PM, SA [REDACTED] HSI West Palm Beach, presented a search warrant application package to Magistrate Judge [REDACTED]. Judge [REDACTED] signed the federal search warrant, authorizing the search of 1189 SW Edinburg Drive, Port St. Lucie, Florida at any time of the day or night. SA [REDACTED] emailed SA [REDACTED] a photograph of the signed search warrant.

On 1 June 2017, at approximately 1:10 AM, HSI Ft. Pierce executed the search warrant. Scott TRADER was present in the residence along with his wife, [REDACTED] his mother, [REDACTED], his step-father, [REDACTED] his father, [REDACTED] his brother, who is impaired by autism, [REDACTED] and his 4-year-old daughter, [REDACTED] (RT).

SA [REDACTED] provided a printed copy of the signed search warrant to [REDACTED], who was disruptive during the execution of the warrant. [REDACTED] yelled at agents/officers, upset [REDACTED] while agents were attempting to clear [REDACTED] room, and insisted she could move about as she pleased because it was her home. After repeated warnings, [REDACTED] was briefly handcuffed for refusing to stay seated at a table which had been cleared of weapons. The restraints were removed after approximately two minutes, when [REDACTED] agreed to cooperate and sit at the table. Entry and later, exit video, was taken by SA [REDACTED]

At approximately 1:24 AM, SA [REDACTED] activated his digital recorder and made contact with Scott TRADER, who was handcuffed and sitting where he was encountered, in his bedroom, later labeled as Room H. SA [REDACTED] advised TRADER of his rights. TRADER invoked his right to remain silent. TRADER was removed to the kitchen table area of the residence. SA [REDACTED] recovered a Samsung Galaxy S6 (SM-G920T) smartphone, Property Log #10, from the nightstand on the right/far side of the bed in room H.

At 2:15 AM, SA [REDACTED] conducted a recorded interview with [REDACTED], who had never been restrained, in the children's bedroom, Room G. [REDACTED] advised she had been married to TRADER for a year and identified her smartphones, an LD G6 and Samsung S5, as being located on the nightstand on the left side of the bed in Room H. [REDACTED] advised there was one laptop located in room H, on the bottom of the entertainment center. [REDACTED] said the laptop belonged to her and TRADER did not know the password, [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] said there were SD Cards from when RT was a baby, somewhere in the entertainment center. [REDACTED] advised the only electronic device in the room that was TRADER's was his phone, and she did not use it or know the password. SA [REDACTED] showed [REDACTED] thumbnail pictures from the printed SayHi chat, recovered by HSI Winston-Salem. [REDACTED] identified RT's stuffed monkey, which was present in the room, in the image transmitted during the chat at 21:33. She identified another image, also transmitted at 21:33, as "Sam", who she referred to as TRADER's step-daughter, appearing to misspeak saying "his step-daughter" instead of my step-daughter. The full size image is obviously TRADER's now 11-year-old daughter, [REDACTED] (ST). [REDACTED] recognized the images of TRADER's penis, transmitted 22:23 through 22:26. When shown the photo sent at 22:37 and asked, "Is that him in your bedroom", [REDACTED] replied, "yeah", and stated she had not seen that picture before. [REDACTED] stated TRADER has not sent her pictures of his penis for several years, and any she had received had been deleted.

SA [REDACTED] manually examined [REDACTED]'s two smartphones, but did not find any relevant data or applications. [REDACTED]'s devices were not seized. SA [REDACTED] also manually examined a smartphone which [REDACTED] identified as hers. The smartphone did not contain any relevant data or applications and was not seized.

During the search of Room H, SA [REDACTED] located the following items behind the kickboard of a shelving unit, which primarily held DVDs and CDs:

Samsung Galaxy S3 (SGH-T999) Smartphone, Property Log #6
WD My Passport Ultra External Hard Disk Drive, Property Log #5
9 Media Storage Cards, Property Log #4
LG G6 (LG-H872) Smartphone, Property Log #7

Other seized electronic items from room H, and the agent who located the item were:

 NuVision Tablet, Property Log #9, SA [REDACTED]
 Gateway Laptop, Property Log #11, SA [REDACTED]

Other seized electronic items from other rooms, and the agent who located the item were:

LG Phone, Room E, Property Log #1, TFO [REDACTED]
 Acer Laptop, Room L, Property Log #3, TFO [REDACTED]

Room E was [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]'s room, the master bedroom. Room L was the garage.

On-scene forensic previews were conducted by TFO [REDACTED]. From a MicroSD Card inside the Samsung S3, Property Log Item #6, images and video of TRADER engaged in sexual activity with his two daughters was recovered. A preliminary exam of the WD My Passport hard drive revealed it contained multiple folders with over a thousand images and videos of suspected child pornography. One of the folders was titled, "pics of me with kids." The folder contained numerous images of TRADER engaged in sexual explicit conduct with RT, including the victim performing oral sex on TRADER. Child pornography, including images and videos produced by TRADER, were located on MicroSD Cards that were located among the 9 Media Storage Cards.

TRADER was arrested and transported to HSI Ft. Pierce for processing. All evidence was transported to HSI Ft. Pierce for storage and further examination.

On 1 June 2017, SayHi responded to SA [REDACTED]'s email, agreeing to cooperate and asking what information was being sought. SA [REDACTED] provided SayHi with a picture of the "Scott" SayHi user profile, ID number 26786636. SayHi provided the following subscriber information:

At 12:57 PM on 5 June 2017, SA [REDACTED] received a call from [REDACTED]. SA [REDACTED] activated his digital recorder and [REDACTED] stated HSI seized her LG G6 from Room E during the execution of the warrant, and wanted to know if she could get the phone back. SA [REDACTED] advised he would have to examine the phone in order for it to be returned. SA [REDACTED] obtained an LG G6 from the seized property and found it was PIN locked. SA [REDACTED] requested the PIN in order to manually examine the smartphone. [REDACTED] provided several PINs which did not work. When SA [REDACTED] was not able to access the device, [REDACTED] advised she would "pull numbers off her head", and provided the PIN which unlocked the device, [REDACTED]. While conducting a manual review, SA [REDACTED] informed [REDACTED] he located relevant data and would not be able to return the device.

After the call, SA [REDACTED] reviewed the Search Warrant Property Log and determined he had retrieved the LG G6 that had been recovered from Room H, not the identical type handset seized from Room E.

Investigation Continues

Fletcher.

Congratulations to you and Lyolia on the birth of your child. I'm Equally as happy for you both, as I was Suprised to learn about the news. Best of Luck, Health, and happiness.

The Reason for this letter is to inform you that I need to you, and I need to see you before you draft the brief for my appeal. I know that is Difficult because of where I am housed, but my brief is Due July 10th, And I have Several things I need to Discuss with you before that time. During my recent time at the Palm beach County Jail, Feb 21st - April 11th, I was able to take advantage of their law Library, And learned alot about the issues at the center of my appeal. There is a certin way I want this appeal to be presented, And A Specific argument I want made. Please Fletcher, before you draft my brief, and to avoid wasting time, I need to make sure you and I are on the same page.

With that being said, In the beginning of Feb, I had sent a letter to you, and when I saw you last on Feb 27th, you still had not Read it. There are things I want and need involving my case that I have asked for copies of, going back as far as Aug 2014. There are reasons I want them, Aside from having them for my records, And when I see you, we can go over those Reasons together. I have Enclosed another updated list of the Documents that I need or want to see. Please get these Documents to me ASAP. I truly believe we could win this appeal, IF presented and argued correctly.

For the time being, I'm still in Miami IDC. Being here still, after having been designated on Jan 10th, Leaves me to believe I'm being held for the State. Of course, I don't know that, or when I'm going to be moved, but I'm sure it would be easier for you to see me here in Miami,

Fletcher,

I want to thank you for sending me a copy of my Appellant brief before it was filed with the court. I asked of you. I would also like to thank you for sending me those documents that were important to my case, and my argument. I understand though, Short Notice, I've only been asking you for most of them since August of 2019. Anyway, that Expert that I asked you to get to look at K&S's evidence and explain exactly what we were looking at, turned out really well huh.

I'm not going to sugar coat this Fletcher. I'm flaming mad. I haven't yet received the brief, but from what my team read to me over the phone, it was weak. You basically Permitted the Suppression Motion to include cooperator. There are alot of facts about my case you left out. Numerous cites in Cooperates that could have been used to express various points about my case. And in fact, the New Multifactor analysis, pointed out at the end of Kennedy's dissent, which is what the court used as Cooperates because is such a distinct category of information and in the hands of a third party.

You never made the argument about how similar my case is to U.S. v. D'Andrea, 648 F. 3d 2 (1st cir. 2011), and how the Court there could not apply except in circumstances. Fletcher, without making this argument, the good faith exception will apply to my case, even if the Search was a 4th Amendment Violation.

You have to show that the government acted about of the Statute.

I told you all of this when I was in Miami. You took notes. You told me you knew what I want in the brief. You told my Mother the same thing.

Fletcher, I have been working on this brief for about a month now. I was going to mail it to you because I never thought you would file this like altering. I can only wait until we Reading it First.

I took Parts of the Appellant brief from U.S. v. Carra, which you can find at 2015 WL 6593805, and Parts from Carpenter's Supreme Court brief, which was written by the Hall. It can be found at 2017 WL 3545179, and mixed them with each other, added lots of Cites from Carpenter, and D'Andrea, Many more facts about my case than you wrote and got these 103 Pages. I didn't get to finish it, its all on my location information, no other case. I'm now an attorney Fletcher, I repeat myself that in it.

This is important, I need you to read this, there are alot of Parts in it I want used, and I want you to file an amended brief, or a Reply to the questionnaire. If you do not do this I will lose my case.

If you don't do this, I'm going to attempt to file it myself from here, with the help of a Jailhouse attorney, and ask that you be removed from my case, as you filed something I did not want to.

Please if the Judge Fletcher contact me about it if you can and let me know if you do anything in asking or not. If need be, we can pay you extra money for your time Fletcher. With that, have some time and help me.

Thank you

Scott Finner

Please also Submit to the court. The case will be moved. The Requests and Writures for Kik, Comcast, and I will be by the government, and any related material that you have asking for it, that would be useful to prove any of these arguments.

Fletcher,

I know you have gotten word that I am attempting to remove you as counsel, though it should come as no surprise. You have just barely done enough to satisfy the 6th Amendment through out my entire case. The lack of effective assistance at the District Court, is now hurting me at the appellate level, and I can not afford to lose my appeal based upon your case load being to high to prepare an effective appellant brief.

My case is what it is, I can not get around that, but the argument I've prepared over the last 16 months is a combination of both legal and factual and needs to be laid out correctly. What you did for my brief, was take the Motion to Suppress, something I asked you specifically not to do because it was a very weak document as it was, and added 4 pages on carpenters case and how it briefly effects me. You did not go into detail, you did not just oppose my case to his, and what's worse is, you edited out the exigent circumstances argument that I need to defeat the good faith rule, which is the only way I will get out of prison. While you did mention the government didn't argue good faith for this issue, they did raise it in my case. The 11th Cir., I feel, will apply the rule to this issue, anyway to dispose of the case.

We spoke about these issues through out this entire case, including when you came to see me in Miami on June 21st, the day before Carpenter was decided. Let Dispite what you wrote to the courts in the 3 motions for an extension to the filing deadline, you did not include me in any way, or form, in this brief. Had you sent me a copy, before filing like I asked, I would have, once again, sent you notes on what I want argued. Before sending these motions to the court, I contemplated sending you what I have once again, but then I realized you have never once responded back, or even read (that I know of or can tell) any of the letters or notes that I have sent you.

Its pretty sad, that the attorney for Ashley Maddox, the woman who was arrested in connection with my case, and is in California, has corresponded with me several times ~~for~~ over the last 3 weeks, and has even set an appointment to come and see me. She is on the other side of the country Fletcher. I can't even get you to respond to me from 2 hours away, ~~that~~ <sup>and</sup> did I mention that she also works for the Federal Defenders office... Her attorney is smart enough to realize that if I win my appeal, there is no evidence against her client either.

2 of 5

Fletcher, I need help. You are supposed to be on my side, you are my counsel, please help me. I honestly do not think you are going to read this letter either. However if you do, I'm including once again, a list of things I have asked you for repeatedly, most of it since Aug of 2021, that are extremely important to my case and some things that need to be filled with the appendix. (By the way, can I ask why my whole case is centered around location data and yet you never included said data in the appendix?) My family also paid an ~~expert~~ expert, something that was again asked and and and of you, by me, at the district level, and again for this appeal, to do. He has prepared a report, explaining exactly what is included in Kik's disclosure of information. Had you contacted me, or contacted my mother back, after numerous calls to your office, you would have known that and been able to file that with the appendix as well. I thought, after our conversation in Miami, last year, and the same ~~page~~ page, what happened?

I do not think the 11th Cir is going to remove you from my case or let me amend my brief. If they do not, I need you to file an amended brief on my behalf, before the government files their response. From what I understand, once the government files their response, I'm limited to what ever is included in the initial brief, which will result in the affirming of my conviction. I also need you to add to the appendix, <sup>so</sup> it includes the Kik release, all 26 pages of it, their glossary of terms, the report ~~made~~ <sup>made</sup> by this expert, the requests by HSI to both Kik and Comcast and ~~the~~ the chat on Snap hi with the minor, just to name a few. Also Kik's guide to law enforcement

Nothing against you Fletcher, I think you are a good man and I like you, but that is not going to help me get out of prison. The sheer amount of bad legal advice and assistance ~~that I have~~ that I have received from you is astonishing, and I'm not going to sugar-coat that. I am trying to back pedal, but I still need your help. Please mail to me, anything<sup>ing</sup> I am asking for, that you have. If you never received them from the government, please let me know, and please stop blaming me off.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Scott Truitt

I also sent the 11th cir a total of 116 pages, which is basically everything I have. It should be on record by the time you receive this letter. If I can't help myself, I need you to help me. Look at my 46 page Add on to your brief and please Amend the brief you filed to include that information. I know I have gone about this all wrong, but I have no other choice. I am fighting for my life and I haven't received any help. Please also Amend the Appendix to include the 5 things I sent to the court today, plus the very important items I have been asking you for, at least 1-3 on the enclosed list.

4 of 5

list of things that were important to my case, and are important to my appeal, that I have never seen or received, but have asked for, since Aug 2017.

- * 1) The Emergency Situation Disclosure request sent to Kik, by HSI, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 2702 (c)(4), on May 31st 2017.

Fletcher

Thank you for responding to me. I am going to try to be as "succinct" as possible. After reviewing your letter, I agree with you. We do "disagree on what constitutes an effective and persuasive brief". The briefs I have read (particularly addressing the issue of location information from CSLI/IP addresses) have all defended the accused the same way, blurring facts of the case, and case law, creating an argument explaining why and how the defendant is correct, and the government and district court are wrong. Further, it is my understanding that the primary focus of a brief is to address issues that may help a defendant get relief. This is where I feel we differ.

I understand that your experience as an attorney (something of which I have no experience) has generated an opinion "that more is not always better". However, my experience as a defendant being represented by you (something of which I have plenty of experience) has generated an opinion that your defense of less is more, equals no defense at all. And while you may have "represented [me] to the best of [your] ability", you most certainly have not defended me that same way. I have no need at this point to rehash the last 18 months, but any comments, statements, or actions I may have made or taken is a direct result of my counsel's performance.

In sum, if you feel that I have "disparaged" your representation, imagine how and why I feel that way based on what I have seen since 6/1/17 up to now. And as you have reminded me, let me now remind you. The Attorney/Client relationship is a two way street. Despite what you have said, you have not kept me "actively involved in the review of the record, the choice of issues, and the drafting of the brief", as I had requested, and have attempted to address this with you several times.

Since you say that "The carpenter issue in my case is not overly complicated" am I now to assume that you have found a case or cases similar to mine, have addressed these issues, and that the defendants have gotten relief? Am I now to assume that you were going to cite these cases in your reply brief and that is why you did not explain or go into detail about anything in the initial brief? Since I have not found these cases you may have, I was under the impression that in order to get relief, I would have to set precedent and extend Carpenter to include historical IP addresses, and set precedent in showing bad faith under 18 U.S.C. 2702(c)(4), both of which are hard to do and had not been done before, to my knowledge.

As to why Exigent Circumstances has to be addressed, that is simple. The government, by statute, still complied with the S.C.A. by way of 18 USC 2702(c)(4). The government will say the agents relied on a valid statute (Illinois v. Krull) or binding precedent (Davis v. U.S.), but the government will not discuss what the agents said in relying on 2702(c)(4), as they previously have shown. See D.E. 14. And why would they? The fact that HSI Flat out Lied in their requests is not something you addressed in the Motion to Suppress, despite begging you to do so. The district court never had the opportunity to address that issue, only the obvious statutory issue that the government did address (DE 14:10) in which the district court agreed Kik believed an emergency existed based on what the agents said. (DE 15:9) The fact I even have to address this with you makes me think that even after reading my brief, you still do not understand the argument I need to make. The fact that good faith is written into the statute on Kik's Part, is what the government will address. Why would they say anything else?

And Fletcher, just because the government waived good faith as an affirmative defense does not mean they can't address it, they just can't rely on it. And because of how the Statute is worded, I'm not to sure ~~my~~ about that either. But either way, the court decides my fate, not the government, and they can and will use good faith to dispose of my case unless I give them a reason not to.

I am still working on issue II. I have found some cases on the issue but at the same time I'm running into problems. First, I do not have copies of the Discovery that are ~~the~~ relevant to that issue, that I've been asking you for since Aug of 2017. Without those documents, it is hard to make an argument. Second, though I do agree that the Affidavit is bare bones, there are misrepresentations in the affidavit that were not raised pre-trial. Therefore I can not raise them on appeal. Because of these problems, I'm having a hard time properly addressing issue II, and I'm having a hard time getting around good faith. But to answer your question, yes I do want to pursue issue II. No, I do not want your word for word, 100% copy and paste of issue II from the motion to suppress ~~the~~ pursued on appeal. ~~That~~ That argument lost the first time, why would it be any different now?

As for issue III, which was by far the best part of any document you have filed in my case. It was well written, on point, and a complete waste of 12 pages of my appeal. I do not understand why issue III was 1/3 larger

Then issue I, considering the greater chance of winning that argument. My Sentence, although insane, is reasonable. You, are fully aware of this. See: U.S. v. Harding, 696 Fed. Appx. 955, 2017 U.S. App. Lexis 10417 at 958-959. Do you know what doing the same thing over and over again, expecting a different result is called?

Moving on, I want to thank you for giving me legal advice on November 7th 2018, about a meeting that took place on November 6th 2018. I am sorry I only gave you one month's notice that your client needed legal advice about something which could have a damaging effect on his case. I am aware MS. Hopkins represents MS. Maddox and does not represent me. She herself has made that clear. However, we have the same common interest. Although her main objective is a defense for Ashley, MS. Hopkins is aware that her client had a reasonable expectation of privacy in her text messages sent to me. Therefore, if the search of my home was unreasonable, because of the previous unreasonable search of Kik's data, then the conversations that led to, and involved her client, should be suppressed. I have a life sentence, and it does not appear to me, that my attorney has been very helpful. And so, at this point, I will take any help, in anyway that I can get it. That said, it would have been nice to know that anything I say, could be used against me.

I want to make this clear, because the next letter I write will be to the Florida bar. You are (for now) still my attorney, and you work for me. If you can, and want to, step aside from this case. If not, please read and re-read my "Supplement" to the brief. Understand the argument I want made. The 1 1/2 pages (pages 14-15) did not address "All of the Viable issues" in issue # ~~one~~ <sup>one</sup> above. I understand you want an oral argument, I do to. But to win an oral argument, you have to first know the argument, and to get one, they (the court) needs a reason to hear the case.

I am putting in writing exactly what I want done, despite what you feel is best for me or what your experience has taught you about a brief. I am not making a request. I want what I wrote corrected, re-written in proper legalese and filed with the court. I am over the limit of words so unless you can get permission to go over the limit, which I would like for you to attempt to do, I am not worried about Supplementing Issue II. I will further address Issue III on 2/25 if I have to get that far. I also expect you to submit to the court, evidence that should have been submitted pretrial, such as the "attachments" I sent to the court with my brief, and the documents I need and have been asking you for. If any of this is a problem, please remove yourself from my case.

As another reminder: I do not have E-Mail. I can not request an un-monitored legal call. I can write and receive mail (letters). I can receive visits. I am working on getting my E-Mail back, it is difficult. To get an un-monitored legal call, you would have to call and set one up by appointment. I will be expecting some sort of response from you.

I am sorry about the tone of this letter. I hope going further, any correspondence or communications we have ~~will be~~ ~~will be~~ will be pleasant and positive and I will have no need to vent any frustration with the way the case is being handled.

I want to wish you, Lydia, and your family a Happy Holiday Season and I hope all is well for you all.

Sincerely,

Scott Bralier

Fletcher,

I'm sure you had to expect this letter would be coming. I received your reply brief, and I noticed that you read my pro se motion. I do have to say, you did an amazing job editing my carpenter argument for issue I. I knew, that if you were to actually read it, you would understand how good of an argument it is, and you would do what I've been asking for, re-write and file it. I just wish it would have been done in the initial. I should not have had to put it before the court, for you to do it.

Regardless, the argument is great, and now it is a great brief. Thank you Fletcher. The way you took what I wrote and used it to respond to the government's claim that my arguments were not tracked was great! The way you distinguished the pre-carpenter cases they cited, using what I wrote was nothing short of perfect! However, I still worry that you sandbagged the government by adding all those facts in the reply, which were not in the initial. Because of that, and the following, I'm still going to ask the court to grant my motion.

I truly believe I can win on the Merits of Issue I. And I do believe you have now shown that I'm right, and how and why I'm right. Unfortunately, A win on the Merits by itself, will not get me out of prison. You did not address the lack of exigent circumstances, at all. Why? I sent you letter after letter. You sent me one response. In that response, you said you would address it in the reply brief, if the government brings it up. I did not agree, and sent you another letter explaining why I believe it had to be within the initial brief. But you never amended it.

OK, so the government addressed it exactly how I thought they would (gov. br. 24-29), the same way they did pre-trial (DC 14: 9-10), basically the only way they could. But then, you never addressed it in the reply. Not even once. Even though you specifically said you would. Even though the issue was raised pre-trial and therefore preserved. Even though I had sent that argument to the court, and was viewable on Pacer two times (10/22/18 and 1/18/19). You never even approached the topic. Why? This is why I need my motion granted. I will not get relief unless that issue is addressed. Sections E and F of issue I in my motion are just as, if not more important, than the Sections you re-wrote.

Issue II in the reply, although much better than the initial because the reply actually raises a legitimate argument, is not the whole argument. You left out numerous facts and details about the issue. None the less, because of the arguments for Issue I, the argument for Issue II makes perfect sense. However, although I may win on the merits, I'm going to be precluded from relief by good faith. What upsets me most about Issue II, is you were fully aware of everything that I put within that argument, Pre-trial. Why wasn't any of it raised?

Additionally, there are other arguments, for other issues I want to put before the court, for a plain Error review. It seems like you may not be aware, but you do know I never signed any post conviction waiver of rights, right? Neither my plea agreement (DE 21), nor the plea colloquy (DE 52), contain any provision waiving any rights to appeal or collaterally attack. Without that provision, my plea agreement on its face, only limits my appeal on my pretrial motion to the two issues raised within. So arguments for issues like the search warrant being particularly deficient, or my argument on the Statutory issue that I should not be charged with 18 U.S.C. 2422(b), because the underlying Florida offense of possession of child pornography, does not fall under the federal definition of "sexual activity", can be brought before the court. And furthermore, because of the wording of my plea agreement, if I "prevail on appeal", I can withdraw my plea of guilty. The agreement does not list what I have to prevail on, to do that.

In sum, I think you did a good job on the reply. However, because of the aforementioned reasons, the reply did little to re-install confidence in your representation. I believe it would be in my best interest if you were removed from my case.

Sincerely,

Scott Truett

As we spoke about on 5/2/19, there have been other cases, in other federal courts, that have attempted to address the issue of privacy rights for IP addresses. I have written them all out, and listed the key distinctions between those cases, and mine.

If you could take this information, re-write it correctly and in proper legal case, and as you said you would, file it with the courts as a Memorandum of Law, that would be great.

I'm also including, just so you can maybe get a better understanding of what I have been trying to tell you the last year, two district court orders, for two motions to suppress, that have been decided since Carpenter. In both cases, the government used the exigent circumstances exception in the Stored Communications Act, 18 U.S.C. 2502(c)(4), to justify the gathering of Real time C.S.L.I. on a suspect. Both of these cases have used the same legal analysis that I have been saying to you, the same legal analysis that has been used over the last 10 years. The government has to justify the emergency, and they bear the burden. The Request used to get the information in my case, just as in these cases, is not a court order, as you kept saying for some unknown reason on the phone. It's just a request sent by law enforcement.

Again, I am begging you. If there is anything else that you can do to address how the government obtained this information, please do. As I've said, this issue not being addressed by you, will keep me in prison. H.S.I. had no justifiable reason, at least not one in good faith, to suspect what they wrote in their requests to the providers. If needed, please re-read what I wrote to the courts about this, Sections E and F, pages 44-65 of the motion I filed on 11/8/19.

Sincerely,
Scott Franks

Since Carpenter was decided, a number of federal courts have held that the good faith exception applies when considering the government's acquisition of C.S.L.I., including Circuit Courts in the 4th, 11th, 7th, 2nd, United States v. Chavez, 894 F.3d 593, 608 (4th Cir. 2018), United States v. Joyner, 899 F.3d 1199, 1204-05 (11th Cir. 2018), United States v. Curtis, 901 F.3d 846, 848-49 (7th Cir. 2018) United States v. Zolhates, 901 F.3d 137, 143-144 (2nd Cir. 2018)

The Second Circuit's holding in Zolhates, abrogated their holding in United States v. Ulbricht, 858 F.3d 71 (2nd Cir. 2017). Ulbricht, the man behind the Dark web site Silk Road, was a case based solely on the tracking of IP addresses. In Zolhates, the government requested IP address information, along with C.S.L.I., from the wireless provider. Mr. Trader argues that in applying the good faith exception to the information in this case, the Second Circuit held IP address information protected along with C.S.L.I.

In the Eastern District of New York, also out of the Second Circuit, IP address information was held protected in United States v. Loera, 333 F. Supp. 172,

4 of 7

2018 U.S. Dist. Lexis 155544 (E.D.N.Y. Sept. 12, 2018).

In El Chapo's case, a motion to suppress was denied by the district court. However, in doing so the court discussed how the Supreme Court in Carpenter "characterized the government's 'acquisition' of collected, recorded data as a search, rather than a seizure". 2018 U.S. Dist. Lexis 155544 at 6, Carpenter, 138 S. Ct. at 2221.

The court further discussed how that decision affects El Chapo's case. Authorities were asked to "surveil certain IP addresses connected to [the] defendant's communications network", and that this "context involves a possible invasion of [I] privacy" that the defendant had in the government's "acquisition" of the collected, recorded data, "constituting a search under the fourth amendment, rather than a seizure". Id. at 6.

The district court reached several conclusions, the most relevant here is when the court concluded that "several searches occurred in this case. First... Authorities conducted searches by their surveillance of each IP address". Loera, 333 F. Supp. 3d 172, 180-81, 2018 U.S. Dist. Lexis 155544 at 6-7.

5 of 7

Although the court in Loera concluded that these searches were reasonable for numerous reasons such as exigent circumstances to avoid the loss of evidence, or the capture of an escaped prisoner (who themselves have no reasonable expectation of privacy), The court did in fact recognize a right to privacy in this IP address information. Noticeably absent from the courts holding, is the third Party doctrine. It did not factor into the courts decision, or even its discussion.

Additionally, since Carpenter was decided, a number of federal courts have applied the Carpenter holding in various ways, addressing numerous issues, but no issue has been at the center of these cases more than IP address information.

The most relevant decision, and the only federal court of appeals to decide a case close to Mr. Trader's is United States v. Contreras, 905 F.3d 853 (5th Cir. 2018). In Contreras, the defendant used Kik to receive, distribute, and view child pornography. Although the same Kik application was used, and assumingly the same scope of records from Kik were obtained by the government, Contreras did not challenge the acquisition of the Kik records. Contreras instead challenged the acquisition of subscriber records from Frontier Communications, the internet service provider for his residence. More specifically, Contreras did not claim his physical movements were tracked, but instead claimed that he had "a reasonable expectation of privacy in the family address" associated with Frontier's records.

The District court held that he had no has to be evaluated on a case by case basis. Too much weight was given to case's that revealed substantially less data about a persons physical movements. Mr. Trackers case requires a different result.

5/29/19

Fletcher,

Since last week when I mailed you information for a memorandum of law on cases decided since Carpenter, the BOP's law library updated and three more cases entered the system. They are:

United States v. Hood, 2019 U.S. App. Lexis 9854
(1st Cir. April 3, 2019)

United States v. Morel, 2019 U.S. App. Lexis 11457
(1st Cir. April 19, 2019)

United States v. Jenkins, 2019 U.S. Dist. Lexis 63344
(N.D. Ga., Feb 5, 2019) adopted by:

United States v. Jenkins, 2019 U.S. Dist. Lexis 62776
(N.D. GA, April 11, 2019)

All three present the question of privacy rights as it relates to IP address information, and in all three cases, the court rejected the argument of the defendant. In Hood and Jenkins, the data at issue were records obtained from Kik. These two cases worry me the most, as one is an appellate court, and one is a district court in this circuit.

2 of 9

In Haral, the government obtained the same records that were obtained in my case, the very same way (18 U.S.C. 2702(c)(4)), and he made the same argument. The First Cir. concluded that Carpenter does not apply because of two reasons:

First, the court ruled (in part because Haral did not dispute that he voluntarily disclosed the information to Kik) that "an internet user generates the IP address data that the government acquired from Kik in this case only by making the affirmative decision to access a website or application", unlike C.S.L.I. Id. Lexis 10. This is incorrect.

Yes, this data does generate from accessing a website or application, but that is not solely how it is generated. If a Kik user has the application on his smartphone, whenever he receives a new message, the app will send a push notification to the phone, which will notify the user that he has a message. Even if the application is not open, even if the phone is in his pocket or in a different room, the user will be notified of the message. There is no doubt that, for the phone to initially receive the message, the phone has to connect to the internet. When the phone connects to the internet to receive the message, this data will be generated, without any affirmative act on the part of the user, Just as with C.S.L.I. See: Carpenter, 138 S.Ct. at 2211-12

Second, the first circuit concluded that the "IP address data that the government acquired from Kik does not itself convey any location information. The IP address data is merely a string of numbers associated with a device that had, at one time, accessed a wireless network. By contrast, C.S.L.I. itself reveals -- without any independent investigation -- the (at least approximate) location of the cell phone user who generates that data simply by possessing the phone." Id., Lexis 10-11. This is also incorrect.

As United States v. Davis, 785 F.3d 498 (11th Cir. 2015) explained, the wireless carriers records produced "five types of data: (1) telephone numbers of calls made by and to Davis's cell phone; (2) whether the call was outgoing or incoming; (3) the date, time, and duration of the call; (4) the number assigned to the cell tower that wirelessly connected the calls from and to Davis; and (5) the sector number associated with that tower. For ease of reference, the fourth and fifth items are collectively called 'historical cell tower location information.'" Davis, 785 F.3d at 502-03

The 'historical cell tower location information' for "Davis's cell number [ ] showed only (1) the number of the cell tower used to route Davis's call, and (2) the sector number associated with that tower. Thus, to determine the location of any cell tower used " as explained by the employee of the wireless carrier to Davis, Law Enforcement would then have to take the next step of viewing " the cell tower glossary created and kept by MetroPCS. The MetroPCS glossary listed (1) each of its cell tower numbers, (2) the physical address, including latitude and longitude of that cell tower, and (3) how many sectors are within each cell tower's range."

As Davis explains, C.S.L.I., just as with IP address information, is "Metadata", which by definition means: "Data that provides information about other data" Merriam-Webster's Collegiate Dictionary (Eleventh edition, Principal copyright 2003, 22nd printing Thomson Press, September 2018); "Data that describes and gives information about other data." (oxforddictionaries.com, 2015 oxford university press)

4 of 9

Thus, C.S.L.I. does not itself reveal the location of the phone. Like IP address data, C.S.L.I. "is merely a string of numbers associated with a device that had, at one time, accessed a wireless network." There is further investigating by law enforcement that has to be done before obtaining the location of a cell phone, except IP address data gives an exact location, where C.S.L.I. gives an approximate one. This case has been wrongly decided, and since they concluded there was no Fourth Amendment violation, the court did not reach how the information was gathered (the alleged exigent circumstances).

6 of 9

In Morel, the first circuit relied upon Hood, which was decided 16 days prior, to conclude that Carpenter did not apply to the IP address information in that case. Although Morel is distinguishable to my case because it involved IP address information provided to the NCMC (only one IP address, only one time), the first circuit may have contradicted their own holding in Hood, by concluding in Morel that "IP address information of the Kind and amount collected here -- gathered from an internet company -- simply does not give rise to the concerns identified in Carpenter." Id. at 2019 U.S. App. Lexis 16-17

By making this statement, the first circuit seems to acknowledge that there may be circumstances where IP address information may be protected by the fourth amendment under Carpenter, if it is of the Kind (that reveals location) and amount (numerous historical IP address connections) that would chronicle a person's physical movements over an extended period of time. This would give rise to the concerns that were identified in Carpenter.

7 of 9

IN Jenkins, the district court for the N.D. of Georgia denied the defendants motion to Suppress data obtained from Kik. In accepting the Magistrate Judges Recommendation, the district court concluded that "This case does not implicate the sort of location surveillance that concerned the Supreme court in Carpenter." Id. Lexis 12. In coming to this conclusion, the court said Jenkins "has not shown, for example, that this information tracks a person's movement with near 'GPS-level precision' like the C.S.L.I. in Carpenter... that it tracks a persons movements from a public thoroughfare 'into private residences, doctor's offices, political headquarters, and other potentially revealing locales... that it enables the government to obtain 'Near perfect Surveillance'". But I can, and have shown this in the reply brief. (Reply brief: 1-8)

The facts between this case and mine present the evidence of this. Kik was not the application used in my case to commit the initial offense. There was no one time where agents could look at the Kik Data and know that I was using Kik at a certain time, and at a certain location, to commit a certain offense. IN Jenkins they could, there was no need to track any other movements.

8 of 9

But just as was written in my reply brief, law enforcement had to track my movements, because nothing but my mother owning that home, ties me to that location. Law enforcement saw the amount of activity on Kik from that one IP address, as opposed to the others, and tracked my MacMats to know when I would be at that location connected to that IP address.

The district court then cited pre-Carpenter cases to describe what an IP address is and does, but failed to make the key distinction between those records, and Kik's Smartphone application records. Id. Lexis 11
My reply brief did. (Reply brief: 12-14)

Finally, the district court cited Post Carpenter cases that are easily distinguishable (see my last letter distinguishing the three cases cited) from my case because of the amount of data that was obtained by law enforcement. Id. Lexis 12-13. The district court missed the point of this distinction when it concluded that it's "irrelevant".
"In Monroe [350 F. Supp. 3d 43 (D.R.I. 2018)] the defendant objected to the production of his IP address" from an on-line file sharing service. This information only

8 of 9

9 of 9

Revealed the one IP address (Monroes residence) that was used to gain access one time (the exact time illicit files were posted on-line). The Kik records in my case revealed over 40 different IP addresses, almost 600 times, over 30 days. If "IP address information merely shows the location at which a device accesses the internet during a specific session" Id. Lexis 11, then this amount of data does "reveal the kind of minutely detailed, historical portrait of 'the whole of a persons physical movement' that concerned the Supreme Court in Carpenter." Id. Lexis 13
This case was wrongly decided.

Fletcher,

From the First Circuit's case United States v. Hood, 2019 U.S. App. Lexis 9817, I've included Hood's pre-trial motion to suppress, the government's response, Hood's initial appellate brief, and the government's appellate brief. I've made notes throughout each for any information that I thought was useful, wrong, or distinguishable.

Hood's initial brief was on the right track, but just as the initial brief in my case, did not include enough detail as to how Kik's data is analogous to C.S.C.I., and Hood did not juxtapose the data within his case, to Carpenter's. This was done within my reply brief. Hood never replied to the government. The government's brief in Hood was also filled with wrong, or distinguishable information which could be shown to the court. Since Hood never replied, the First Circuit found the government's brief persuasive, along with all the wrong and distinguishable information.

Fletcher, because of the data at issue, and the question presented, The Eleventh Circuit will cite this case. You have to show the court that Hood was wrongly decided. Please also take notice that Hood did argue that exigent circumstances was lacking for a request under 18 U.S.C. 2702 (c)(4), and that H.S.I. was not truthful within their request. H.S.I. in their request, said the same, identical thing in both Hood's, and my case. This, I believe, is more than a coincidence, its a pattern by H.S.I. to receive information quickly while by-passing the proper S.C.A. procedures, as i've been saying, and exposed by Hood.

Please use all this information to put some kind of Memorandum of Law before the court.

Sincerely,
Scott Frazier

Fletcher,

On May 02, 2019 we spoke by phone at great length, for the first time in over one year. During that call, I notified you about post-Carpenter v. United States cases which have decided, and have directly addressed the main issue of my appeal, IP address information. I notified you about the distinctions between those cases and their arguments, and my case and my argument. You said to me that you believe the holdings and decisions of those cases benefit me and my argument. When asked, you also said to me that it is not too late to file a Supplement to the brief, and to send you any notes I have written.

On May 20, 2019, and again on May 29, 2019, I mailed to you all notes I had on those cases, which included those key distinctions and why those cases are wrongly decided. I also included cases for you to read, along with the briefs filed by some of those defendants. But after not receiving any response from you, and nothing filed in my case,

I sent those same notes to the Eleventh Circuit court of appeals in the form of a Memorandum of Law in Support of Defendants Appeal. Unfortunately the clerk returned the memorandum to me unfilled on July 10, 2019 because I am represented by you. There has since been nothing filed in my federal case.

In the time since I first sent you the notes, three cases have come to my attention but only one needs to be addressed for the purpose of this letter. In United States v. Kidd, 2019 U.S. Dist. Lexis 114627 (S.D.N.Y. July 3, 2019), The District court denied a Motion to Suppress evidence because the record was insufficient. Separately, while my record has this same problem, the reason for this letter is for you to understand the district court noted all the distinctions between the decisions and holdings of those post Carpenter cases, and the actual argument Kidd was trying to make. More specifically, Kidd made the same argument we are trying to make, and the court correctly understood it. In doing so, the court recognized the same problem with post Carpenter IP address cases, that I did.

"None of the post Carpenter cases ... conclusively addresses each of Carpenter's 5 principle considerations in a factually analogous setting." Id. at 2019 U.S. Dist. Lexis 17-18. This also happens to be the same thing I've been asking you to inform the Eleventh Circuit about the last four months, to avoid my case being wrongly decided.

Once again Fletcher, I am asking you to please read Kiddal, along with: United States v. Diggs, 2019 U.S. Dist. Lexis 80029 (N.D. Ill, May 13, 2019); and United States v. Moore-Bush, 2019 U.S. Dist. Lexis 92631, F. Supp. 3d (D. Mass, June 3, 2019), All included with this letter, And file something... Anything, with the Eleventh Circuit court of appeals. Once again, I am including my notes on those post-Carpenter cases for you to read. (Written within the 3 cases I sent to you, are notes on them.

This is not a request, nor has it been. You are my attorney, and as such, you work for me. I can not file anything myself, I am bound by you. Regardless of what you feel may be in my best interest, this is what I want. Please file something with the court addressing these post-Carpenter cases first, before the court does. Your approach of "hoping for a good panel of judges" is not working for me.

Thank you.
